

“SCH 200 Club”

Data Protection Act 2018

SCH 200 Club keeps names, email data and postal address only.

The ‘Treasurer’ of Slaley Commemoration Hall has access to a Barclays Bank Business Account from which prize money is paid and into which funds are paid. Sort codes and account numbers of the prize winners are not saved by the SCH 200 Club after prize payment.

The ‘Administrator’ will not share any email data from within the SCH 200 Club nor from outside the club where they have been communicated with on Club business without the consent of 50% of the membership of the SCH 200 Club. A suggested reason to share data is the transfer of responsibilities.

The ‘Administrator’ shall send group emails to keep the members of the SCH 200 Club informed about issues associated with the Club and commits to not share email data when sending group emails.

In the event of any accidental exposure of data, members of the SCH 200 Club commit to not share any of this data.

The ‘Administrator’ shall retain the names of prize winners.

By subscribing to SCH 200 Club you are agreeing that SCH 200 Club can store your data described above and that you understand your responsibility to keep data private as a member of the Club.

If you prefer not to agree to this document, you may remain within the SCH 200 Club. You will not receive email communications.

Please contact the ‘Administrator’ if you do not agree to this data protection policy.